

IRW Booklist

the environmental education edition

IRW believes in the power of books to inspire, spark curiosity, and open doors and minds. We created this special edition of our Booklist and filled it with some of our favorite titles for exploring the natural world. Whether you want to learn about scientists and conservationists, the vast diversity of animals that share our planet, imagine yourself in a new ecosystem, or be inspired to take action—there's a book here for you.

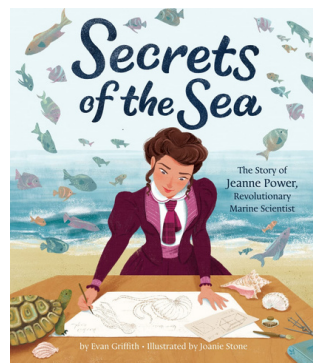

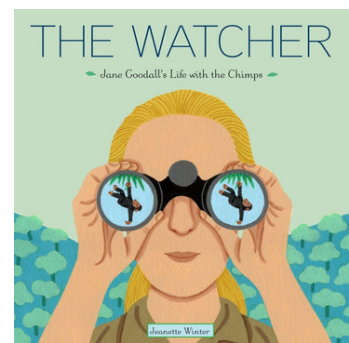

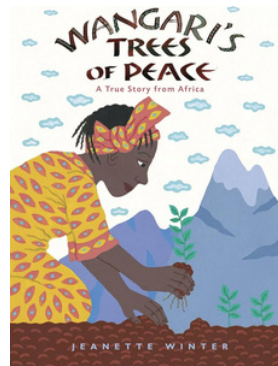

Happy Reading!

—The IRW Team
